No death of shiksha mitras during protests: UP govt

AGENCIES Lucknow

The Uttar Pradesh government informed the Legislative Council on Friday that there had been no death of 'shiksha mitras' or teaching assistants during their protests over various demands.

The government was, however, asked by Legislative Council Chairman Ramesh Yadav to verify a list of 104 'shiksha mitras' who had allegedly died during protests, and take appropriate action.

The list was presented by Samajwadi Party legislator Anand Bhadauria.

Raising the issue during Question Hour, Bhadauria asked the government how many 'shiksha mitras' had lost their lives while participating in protests and agitations.

In reply, Basic Education Minister Anupama Jaiswal said, "As per the information provided by the district basic education officers, no 'shiksha mitra' had died while participating in the protests. The government has given age relaxation sha mitras' in recruitment examination of teachers."

The Samajwadi Party legislator, on a supplementary question, said he had information that 104 'shiksha mitras' or teaching assistants for primary classes in government schools had died during the protests and asked if the government would confirm the list and give compensation.

Renuka spares PM, takes on MoS Rijiju FP NEWS SERVICE

New Delhi

Instead of targeting Prime Minister Modi for an uncharitable remark on Wednesday, senior Congress MP Renuka Chowdhury on Friday moved a privilege notice in the Rajya Sabha against Union Minister of State Kiren Rijiju for mocking her on the social media and suggesting by innuendo that PM had compared her with Surpanakha, the evil genius in the Ramayana TV serial. Though the PM made no such comparison and merely said that Renuka's guffaw had reminded him of similar derisive laughter in the TV serial Ramayan, Rijiju muddied the waters by posting on his Facebook account a TV serial clip of Surpanakha laughing her head off. Without mentioning Rijiju's name, since he is a member of the other House (Lok Sabha), Samajwadi Party member Naresh Agarwal raked up the issue in the Rajya Sabha through a point of order to suggest that the member should apologise for his nasty conjecture in the social media.

UP minister receives death threat on phone, FIR lodged

AGENCIES Allahabad

Uttar Pradesh Minister Nand Gopal Gupta Nandi on Friday alleged that he received a death threat on his mobile phone, after which police in Allahabad lodged an FIR.

Nandi, the Minister for Stamp and Registration, said he received the threat on Thursday from someone claiming to be speaking on behalf of former Samajwadi Party legislator Vijay Mishra.

He then asked his lawyer to file an FIR. Details of the call and the phone number from which the call was made have been shared with the police, an aide told IANS. Following the FIR, the police raided the house of a man who owns an automobile agency. The man, however, is on the run, an official added.
